

Database of Good Practice Policies and Initiatives
Country	Finland
Level of Outreach	Local
Supported by	Regional Agency
Field of Interest(s)	Digitalization, Promotion of the attractiveness of the Construction Industry
Organisation
Name of organisation	Sataedu
Address	Yhdystie 1,
City /ZIP	28400 Ulvila
Country	Finland
E-Mail
Website	www.sataedu.fi
Contact Person
Contact Name	Jari Pentinmäki
Telephone	00358 40 1994100; 00358 0401994840
E-Mail	jari.pentinmaki@sataedu.fi
Policy/Initiative Data
Title of Initiative	Digital Learning Diary
Partnership details	Sataedu
Project Duration	12.11.2019 to 12.08.2020
Total Budget	€20,000.00
Description	Digital learning diary as a method to help student to outline the progress of studies and deepen learning in skills
Phases	n/a

Project Details
Aim	To give student tools on - learning how to learn
Target groups	Students in basic vocational education, teachers
Exchange of Experiences	Teachers 'experiences of how different learners adopt new knowledge and skills. Can the use of new technology contribute to student learning? How are smart devices used as a study tool?
Outcomes 1	How to use media and digital material in learning process
Outcomes 2	How to make learning meaningful
Outcomes 3	How to deepen basic competences in construction
Policy/Initiative
Skill gaps	Smart device as part of construction
Mis-matching of skills	Smart devices are part of the daily lives of young people, but how do they become part of serious learning
Skills-Shortages	Take on new skills effectively
Training	The story of an awake student as an example
Career moves	Promoting and accelerating basic education capacity
Mobility	A natural part of the method
Other EQF-Level	It is a learning method that supports raising the level of competence. Can be assessed at level 4
Transfer in Europe	Can be applied to any craft learning process anywhere
Entrepreneurship Opportunities	n/a
Other	Using digital material in support for learning.